Presentations of the MIKAS project at the international conferences in 2026

The achievements of the MIKAS project have been presented at the three international events held during September 2026.

The karst commission members at the EUROKARST 2026 conference in Neuchatel, Switzerland (31 August-3 September 2026). Among them the Advisory Board members: Peter Malik, Augusto Auler, Avi Burg, Zoran Stevanović and MIKAS national experts from Belgium, France, Greece, Italy, Iran, Slovenia, Spain, Switzerland.

At the international scientific conference "Explore, Understand and Protect: Towards Sustainable Management of Caves and Karst", Postojna (10-13 September 2026). From left: Jubing Pu, Luo Qukan (representative of the MIKAS Asian sponsor the IRCK, Guilin, China), Zoran Stevanović, John Gunn

Four members of the MIKAS Advisory Board after presenting results of the MIKAS at IAH World Groundwater Congress in Budapest (13-18 September, 2026) (Session: 1.2 Hydrogeology of karst and fractured systems: From field studies to quantitative characterization). From left: Avi Burg, Jubing Pu, Peter Malik and Zoran Stevanović

Presentation of the MIKAS selection criteria by Zoran Stevanović in Budapest. The session chaired by Peter Malik